Thankful for Learning

Reading: What's In Store for the Future?

Skill: Fact & Opinion

What We're Doing: This week students will be reading a non-fiction story. They will need to identify facts and opinions from the story.

When We're Testing: Tuesday, November 15th

Writing: Persuasive Letters

Students will continue writing to persuade. Currently, they are trying to persuade their parents to take them on a vacation. They must give three reasons and three details to support each reason.

Grammar: Irregular Plural Nouns

In Grammar, we are learning that some plural nouns do not follow "the rule" of adding -s or -es

Math: Addition/Subtraction

Students have been working on hard on adding and subtracting numbers with or without regrouping.

When We're Testing: Wednesday, November 9th

Parent Teacher Conferences

Thank you all for attending Parent-Teacher Conferences. With your active support, this school year will be amazing. Please remember that if you have any questions or comments, feel free to send me a note, phone call, or email and I will return the message within 2 days.

Fall Festival Party

Halloween was very exciting in Studio 3A. We began the celebration with the annual Costume Parade followed by our fabulous party. Students enjoyed creating crafts, playing games, listening to the music and munching on a feast of goodies. Thanks to all parents who were able to help.

Teacher Notes:

If you have not joined PTA, please do so. The cost is only $5.

We are collecting "Disney" items for our Holiday Basket to be auctioned off at the 3rd Grade Musical & PTA Meeting
